

—
INSTITUT DE HAUTES
ÉTUDES INTERNATIONALES
ET DU DÉVELOPPEMENT
GRADUATE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

Tufts University

The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy

Exchange Programme

Number of Places for 2019/2020	2
Open to	MA students
Website for incoming exchange students	www.fletcher.tufts.edu
Courses open to exchange students	www.fletcher.tufts.edu/academic/courses/ Exchange students can take any of the courses offered in the Fletcher curriculum. The only exception is when a class is oversubscribed by Fletcher degree seeking students. In this case, the Fletcher degree seeking students will have priority. This is a rare occurrence. In addition to taking Fletcher Courses, exchange students can take one course credit at a School where Fletcher has a cross-registration agreement.
Language/s of instruction	English
Language requirements	TOEFL IBT 100
Academic Calendar	Fall Term 2019: early September 2019 – late December 2019 Mandatory orientation prior to semester

The following application information applies solely to nominated students

Application Deadline	April 1, 2019 (special extended date for Graduate Institute)
Admission criteria and application procedure	Completion of the on-line application (https://fletcher.admissions.tufts.edu/apply/) CV/resume; Statement of Purpose (personal Statement),

Transcripts from both undergraduate program and current program; standardized testing scores (i.e. TOEFL, GMAT, or GRE) if available, and one letter of recommendation. All of this can be done through the online application process.

Important Note: The Final admission decision always remains with the host institution.

Other relevant information

Non-US citizens or permanent residents of the US are required to have an “F-1” visa for entry into the United States. Upon admission international students should be in touch with the International Student Advisor.