WHAT STUDENTS SAY

RACHAEL MACKIE
(Australia)

The mix of students, experience, and nationalities was wonderfully diverse and made for an amazing start to what has undoubtedly been one of the most profound two weeks of my academic and professional life to date. The scope of topics, mixed with the diversity of our group made for lively participation, discussion, and an overall deepening of knowledge. The programme had a balanced mix of lectures, talks, group work, tours, and even a mock General Assembly Negotiation!

ELISE MAARSCHALKERWEERD
(The Netherlands)

The quality of the courses is something I have not experienced before. Expert lecturers from all over the globe were asked to share their knowledge and give workshops. Not only did they do so in an exceptional manner, they were also extremely enthusiastic and inspirational. What I liked most was the space given for interaction. You are encouraged to ask questions, to comment or to critique during lectures. This made me feel like I was a true part of the programme and boosted my confidence.
