

GLOBAL SOUTH SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAMME CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies is calling for applications for its fellowship programme designed for university teachers holding a PhD – with a preference for women and junior academics – from Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Candidates must teach and carry out research in the fields of specialisation of the Graduate Institute, broadly speaking those of international relations and development studies.

See the list of our Master and PhD programmes online:

→ <http://graduateinstitute.ch/studyprogrammes>

Scholars will spend one semester at the Institute to:

- Further a personal research project
- Update and strengthen their teaching curricula
- Interact with the Institute's academic community and Geneva-based international experts

The programme is fully-funded.

Deadlines for applications:

- 1 March for the autumn semester
- 1 October for the spring semester
