

Rigotnomics

Brown Bag Lunch

Spring 2011 Schedule

The Brown Bag Lunch is a weekly informal seminar where PhD students present their work and ideas in progress to get good and necessary feedback to enhance their papers.

Mondays 12.15 PM in R3
Rigot, The Graduate Institute

Click here to register! Do so until the Thursday before the BBL for a free sandwich! Refreshments are courtesy of Prof. Richard Baldwin's ProDoc project.

07-Mar	Matthias Rieger	HIV aids and civil wars
14-Mar	Spot available
21-Mar	Cosimo Beverelli	Offshoring and migration in a world with policy spillovers
28-Mar	Anastasia Aladysheva	The echo of Stalinism and the determinants of social trust in contemporary Russia
04-Apr	Matthias Rieger and Natascha Wagner	The end of poverty (dynamics)
11-Apr	Dany Jaimovich	Missing markets, missing links: Evidence from network of exchanges in rural Gambia
18-Apr	Tomasso Trani	International transmission and repo transactions
25-Apr	Easter break
02-May	Pierre-Louis Vézina	How Chinese exporters dodge antidumping duties
09-May	Julia Schmidt	Non-linear effects of world interest rate and exchange rate fluctuations
16-May	Cameron McLoughlin	Determinants of monetisation in low-income countries
23-May	Matthias Rieger and Natascha Wagner	Fertility shocks, child health and polygamy
30-May	Veronika Zavacka	Factory Europe: How much a factor in crisis and recovery?