

Curriculum Vitae

Cécile Druey, born on 17 March 1973, citizen of Switzerland

Education

- since 2010 PhD studies at the Graduate Institute for International and Development Studies in Geneva, Section International History and Politics. Provisional title of the dissertation: "Between Multilateralism and Unilateralism: A Case Study of the Russian Role in Georgia (1992 - 2009)".
- 2006 - 08 Master studies at the Graduate Institute in Geneva, International History and Politics as main subject, International Law as minor subject.
- 1993 - 99 Licence studies at the universities of Fribourg, Bern, and Kazan' (RF), Russian Language and Literature as main subject, Islamic studies and Philosophy for Eastern Europe as minor subjects.

Professional Experience

- Since 2011 Programme Coordinator, Humanitarian Dialogue in the North Caucasus, swisspeace, Bern.
- 2008 - 2010 Scientific Advisor, Desk for Eastern Europe and Central Asia, Political Division I, Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, Bern (FDFA).
- 2000 - 2006 Secretary General of the International Culture and Youth Exchange (ICYE), Swiss branch.
- 2001 - 2011 Extraofficial work for NeSTU (Network Switzerland - Transcarpathia/Ukraine, www.nestu.org).

Languages

- German First language
- French Excellent oral and written skills
- English Excellent oral and written skills
- Russian Excellent oral and written skills
- Arabic Average oral and written skills
- Italian Basic oral and written skills
- Tatar Basic oral and written skills

Siselen, March 2011