

JACLYN GRANICK

jaclyn.granick@graduateinstitute.ch

+1 (201) 618-1061

United States of America

---

EDUCATION

Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID)

Geneva, Switzerland

PhD in International History and Politics, expected in 2014.

Working Dissertation: International Jewish-American Charitable and Advocacy Organizations from 1906 to 1960

Advisor: Davide Rodogno

Research Interests: interactions between transnational non-governmental organizations and international organizations; religious internationalism; history and historiography of Jewish diplomacy; late-nineteenth to mid-twentieth century institutional history in the United States and Europe

MA in International Studies, specialization in History and Politics, 2010.

Coursework in history, law, and political science.

Archive-based research thesis on Jewish international associations and the League of Nations in the 1920s.

Harvard University

Cambridge, MA

BA, cum laude, in Social Studies, recommended for high honors in field, 2008.

Citation in French language

Coursework in organizing, social theory, disability rights, politics of Europe, modern Jewry, political Islam, French society and language, statistics, economics, and the postcolonial world.

THESES

“Jewish International Associations at the League of Nations, 1919-1927: A Historical Study of an Uneven Relationship between Private Associations and an International Organization” (2010)

Advisor: Davide Rodogno

Reader: André Liebich

Archive-based, 15,000-word master’s thesis in history; received score of 5.5/6.0; available in IHEID library.

“Enabling a Unified Voice: Organizing the European Disability Rights Movement through Political Opportunity Structure and Mission” (2008)

Advisor: Marshall Ganz

Readers: Paulo Barrozo, Glyn Morgan

Interview-based, 24,500-word undergraduate honors thesis for Social Studies; received magna plus; available in the Harvard University Archives.

AWARDS

Kathryn Wasserman Davis Grant

Geneva, Switzerland

Awarded for 4 years to complete a doctorate in international history and politics at IHEID. 2010-present.

US Fulbright-Swiss Scholarship

Geneva, Switzerland

Granted for Study of International History, Politics, and Law in field of International Relations. 2008-2009.

Swiss Government Scholarship for Foreign Students

Bern, Switzerland

Granted for graduate-level university studies at IHEID by the State Secretariat for Education and Research. 2008-2010.

Harvard University Research Travel Grants

Cambridge, MA

Awarded Harvard University Committee on Human Rights Studies research grant and the Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies Krupp Foundation research travel grant for undergraduate thesis research in Brussels, Belgium. 2007.

CONFERENCE PAPER

“Enabling a Unified Voice: the European Disability Forum, civil society activists, and the European Union.” Paper presented at the Fifth Pan-European Conference on EU Politics, Porto, Portugal, June 2010.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID) Geneva, Switzerland
Research Assistant. Editing and manuscript preparation for Annabelle Littoz-Monnet, Fall 2010. Research in the League of Nations Archives on indigenous peoples’ activism for Isabelle Schulte-Tenckhoff, Summer 2009.

European Disability Forum Brussels, Belgium
Intern. Worked on follow up to the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, preparing speeches for EDF president and a board member to give at a European ministerial meeting and a training seminar, respectively; writing informational documents for presentations; tracking member countries’ progress and involvement in national signature and ratification; contacting European Commission to inquire about EU process. Summer 2007.

RI (Rehabilitation International) New York, NY
Intern. Represented the International Disability Caucus at monitoring informals for the UN Convention and worked with the IDC at the 8th Session of the Ad Hoc Committee on the UN Convention, which adopted it. Researched the accessibility of Manhattan. Organized logistics of RI & USICD Seminar on Implementation of the UN Convention. Reorganized web site. Summer 2006.

Harvard International Review Cambridge, MA
Senior Editor, Perspectives and Web Managing Editor. Responsibilities included leading staff of 15 editors, soliciting and editing articles for website and print, and managing blog. January 2005 to July 2007.

LANGUAGES

Non-native fluency in French (studied 1998 to 2007, citation in French language from Harvard University, graduate-level coursework conducted in French at IHEID, 2008-present living in French-speaking environment), intermediate-level Yiddish, basic Hebrew and German.