

SUMMER PROGRAMME IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Week Two

Global Health Challenges of the 21st Century

1-5 July 2019

Module directed by
 Dr. Suerie Moon, Global Health Centre, Graduate Institute

	MONDAY, 1 July	TUESDAY, 2 July	WEDNESDAY, 3 July	THURSDAY, 4 July	FRIDAY, 5 July
9:15-10:45	Introduction: Global Health Concepts, Trends and Issues Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute	Theme 2: Instruments for Governing Global Health Dr. Haik Nikogosian, Graduate Institute	Theme 4: The Global Governance of Outbreaks Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute	Case 2: Global challenges regulating tobacco and alcohol Prof. Andrew Mitchell, Melbourne Law School	Working Groups Presentations Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute
10:45-11:00	Break		Break	Break	Break
11:00-12:30	Theme 1: Power, Actors and Institutions in Global Health Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute	Theme 3: Financing Global Health Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute	Case 4: Ebola in the Democratic Republic of Congo Prof. Vinh-Kim Nguyen, Graduate Institute	Theme 5: Innovation and Access to Technologies Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute	Theme 6: Future Disruptions in Global Health Prof. Ilona Kickbusch, Graduate Institute
12:30-13:30	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
13:30-15:00	A History of Global Health Dr. Yi-Tang Lin, University of Geneva	Case 3: Universal Health Coverage by 2030? Dr. David Evans, World Bank Group and Swiss Tropical and Public health Institute	Visit to WHO	Case 5: Innovation, access and stewardship of antibiotics Mr. Peter Beyer and Dr. Sarah Paulin, WHO	Theme 6: The Future of Global Health: Convergence by 2030? Prof. Gavin Yamey, Duke University
15:00-15:15	Break	Break		Break	Break
15:15-16:30	Case 1: The World Health Organization Dr. Haik Nikogosian, Graduate Institute	Team Project (I) Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute		Team Project (II) Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute	Summary and Conclusions Dr. S. Moon, Graduate Institute