

Migration and Conflict: From Evidence to Solutions

10 October 2019, 13h20 – 17h30
Room S8, Maison de la Paix, Geneva

Agenda:

13h20 Welcome and Introductions Simone Dietrich (University of Geneva and EGAP)

13h30 -14h30 Crosscutting roundtable on practitioner-research partnerships: from evidence to solutions

Moderator: Simone Dietrich

Participants:

Petru Dumitriu, Inspector, Joint Inspections Unit, United Nations

Macartan Humphreys, Director of Institutions and Political Inequality Unit, Berlin Social Science Center and EGAP

Rebecca Wolfe, Director of Evidence and Influence, Mercy Corps and EGAP

Jacobus de Hoop, Manager of Humanitarian Policy Research, UNICEF Office of Research, Innocenti

14h30 – 17h PARALLEL SESSIONS:

PARALLEL SESSION 1: Migration and Development

Moderator: Morgan Holmes, 3ie and World Bank

Presentation 1: Macartan Humphreys, Social Science Center Berlin and EGAP: "Migration and Misinformation in Nigeria"

Practitioner Response: Sybella Wilkes, Senior Communications Officer, UNHCR

Q&A

Presentation 2: Tolga Sinmazdemir: "Diversity Without Adversity? Refugees` Efforts to Integrate Marginally Offset Identity-Based Bias." School of Oriental and African Studies and EGAP

Practitioner Response: Cecile Riallant, Lead, Migration and Sustainable Development, IOM

Q&A

15h30-16h Coffee Break

Presentation 3: Maarten Voors, Wageningen University and EGAP: "Impacts of Humanitarian Assistance: Experimental Evidence from the Congo"

Practitioner Response: Hanspeter Wyss, Program Manager, Migration and Development, Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation

Q&A

Presentation 4: Dominik Hangartner, ETH Zurich: "How Do Refugee Crises End? The Micro-Dynamics of Refugee Return"

Practitioner Response: Michelle Leighton, Chief, Labour Migration Branch, ILO

Q&A

PARALLEL SESSION 2: Conflict, Peace, and Reconciliation

Moderator: Alyoscia D'Onofrio, International Rescue Committee

Presentation 1: Andres Moya, Universidad de Los Andes and EGAP: "Promoting Recovery and Resilience for Victims of Violence and Refugees: Lessons from Colombia"

Practitioner Response: Nils Rosemann, Head Centre of Competence Conflict and Human Rights, Swiss, Agency for Development and Cooperation

Q&A

Presentation 2: Rezarta Bilali, New York University and EGAP: "Harnessing the Power of Stories to Promote Peace in Conflict Contexts"

Practitioner Response: Katia Papagianni, Director, Policy and Mediation Support, Center for Humanitarian Dialogue

Q&A

15h30-16h Coffee Break

Presentation 3: Alexandra Scacco, Social Science Center Berlin and EGAP: "Vocational Training and Urban Youth in Nigeria"

Practitioner Response: Tine Staermose, Senior Adviser to ILO's Deputy Director-General for Policy

Q&A

Presentation 4: Cyrus Samii, New York University and EGAP: "How Recognizing Ethnic Identity Promotes Peace."

Practitioner Response: Mona Rishmawi, Chief of Rule of Law and Non-Discrimination Branch, The Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights

Q&A

17h-17h30 Wrap-up and Future Events

17h30-18h30 Reception

This event is organised in partnership with:

