

Global Governance Colloquium Series

Spring 2020

The series aims to build a denser research community by providing scholars of various governance issues a platform to present and discuss works in progress across disciplinary boundaries.

Advancing Rights in Global Value Chains: Exploring the Potential of “Transnational Inclusive Governance”

Speaker: Janelle Diller, Senior Fellow in Residence, at the Global Governance Centre at the Graduate Institute

Discussant: Nico Krisch, Professor of International Law and Co-director of the Global Governance Centre at the Graduate Institute

When & Where: Monday, 24 February, 12:30 - 14:00 | Room S1 – P2, Maison de la paix

Climatizing the UN Security Council

Speaker: Lucile Maertens, Lecturer in international relations at the University of Lausanne and associate fellow at CERI/Sciences Po in Paris

Discussant: Marine Gauthier, PhD candidate in International Relations /Political Science and research assistant at the Centre on Conflict, Development & Peacebuilding, the Graduate Institute

When & Where: Monday, 9 March, 12:30 - 14:00 | Room S7 – Interpetal, Maison de la paix

(POSTPONED) International Humanitarianism in the Early Twentieth Century: Promethean, Arrogant, Provincial and Redemptive

Speaker: Davide Rodogno, Professor of International History, Director, Executive Certificate Advocacy in International Affairs, the Graduate Institute

Discussant: TBC

When & Where: TBC

(POSTPONED) The Politics of Beginning. Private Authority as Drama

Speaker: Alejandro Esguerra, post-doctoral researcher in the DFG research group ‘Wicked Problems, Contested Administration’ (WIPCAD), University of Potsdam, Germany

Discussant: TBC

When & Where: TBC

Responsible Agricultural Investments. How Are Agricultural Futures Governed at the International Level?

Speaker: Birgit Müller, Director of Research at the CNRS / France (HdR)

Discussant: TBC

When & Where: Monday, 25 May, 12:30 - 14:00 | Room S7 – Interpetal, Maison de la paix